Dear Parent

Greetings from QCS!

We are delighted to inform you that our Annual Function for the academic session 2024-25, Samanvay: Symphony of Culture, is scheduled for Saturday, 25th January 2025. This event is a celebration of the rich diversity and unity of cultures, and we are excited to showcase the talents and creativity of our students. To ensure the success of this grand event, regular practice sessions will be conducted daily. Kindly take note of the following details:

1. Practice Schedule:

- Regular practice sessions will be conducted daily as part of the preparation.
- Adjusted Time Table: A three-period timetable along with practice sessions will be followed until the Annual Day. Students are required to bring books according to the shared timetable.
- Note: Saturday's 18th would be working for full day practice. It would be compulsory for all to be present.

2. Attendance:

- 100% attendance during practice sessions is mandatory.
- All students must be present on all scheduled practice days to ensure seamless preparations.

2. Requirements:

- Students are required to bring a water bottle, a proper heavy tiffin, and a fruit tiffin daily.
- All students must come to school in proper winter uniform.

We look forward to your continued support in motivating the children to participate with enthusiasm and commitment.

Regards

Team QCS
